WATERVLIET WATERFRONT FARMERS' MARKET RULES and REGULATIONS

The market management reserves the right to do spot visits and farm inspections to assure that the products sold are in compliance with the market's rules and regulations.

Non-payment of booth space may result in forfeiture of market privileges.

You must provide proof of general liability coverage in the amount of $1 million dollars and name the Watervliet Waterfront Farmers' Market and the City of Watervliet as an additional insured. The certificate will remain on file with the City.

Copies of all licenses and/or permits necessary for the type of products you are planning to sell must be provided; i.e. Board of Health permits, nursery license.

I agree to operate my booth in a safe and courteous manner and to pay rents as set forth by this agreement.

I understand that failure to comply with the rules and regulations could result in dismissal from the market.

I understand that the booth rent, length of season, and hours of operation are determined by the market's management and even if I do not agree with them, I will abide by them.

Sellers should arrive by 1:30 PM before the market start time to set up. All vendors should be set up by 2:30 PM. Early customer sales will be permitted.

As a vendor wishing to rent space in the Watervliet Waterfront Farmers' Market, I agree to save, hold harmless, and indemnify the Watervliet Waterfront Farmers' Market, its sponsoring agency, members and employees, from any and all liability or responsibility pertaining to or any damages to persons or property on the site leased by me from said market when such damages, or liability, arise out of any acts of my own, or of my employees or associates, located at said site.

I have read this document and do agree to abide by all of the rules and regulations set forth.

I attest that all information I have provided about my farm and products for sale is true and accurate.
